

IMMIGRANTS ARE A VITAL PART OF THE FINGER LAKES

Immigrants have long been a critical part of New York State's identity, economy and cultural vibrancy.

Immigrants start small businesses, and as workers play a particularly big role in construction, restaurants and the care economy. And immigrants enrich communities with diverse languages, music, and traditions. Immigrants are neighbors, workers, parents and taxpayers who contribute billions to the state's economy each year.

Immigrants are an essential part of the Finger Lake's workforce. In education, immigrant workers help educate our children in schools and college. In the healthcare economy immigrants provide essential care in communities as doctors and registered nurses. And in the care economy immigrants are often the ones who make it possible for parents to go to work knowing their kids and elders in need of help are in good hands.

Policies that push out immigrants harm the Finger Lakes Region by:

- ↑ Higher prices for goods & services as the labor force shrinks
- ↑ Increased cost of living
- ↓ Smaller workforce & fewer jobs overall
- ↓ Reduced tax revenue
- ↓ Lower economic output
