

IMMIGRANTS ARE A VITAL PART OF MASSACHUSETTS' FUTURE

Just as we came together from different nationalities, ethnicities and races to build Massachusetts in past decades, a strong future for our state includes immigrants

Immigrant workers and business owners grow Massachusetts' economy

1.2 million immigrants reside in Massachusetts. Immigrants work in low-wage, middle-wage, and higher-wage jobs in all sectors across our state's economy.

35% of Main Street business owners in Massachusetts are immigrants,

22% of Massachusetts workers are immigrants, including:

29% of college professors

38% of software developers

40% of home health aides

Immigrant workers and business owners generate $129 billion of economic output in Massachusetts. Immigrant contribution to GDP is about the same as immigrant share of the labor force.

Immigration increases opportunity for Massachusetts

When immigrants move to Massachusetts, the economy grows. That doesn't mean fewer jobs, it means more jobs: there are more consumers, more workers, and more business owners. Study after study shows there is no fixed number of jobs in a state. Immigration creates opportunities that benefit U.S.-born workers too.

IMMIGRANTS ARE PART OF A GROWING MASSACHUSETTS ECONOMY

IMMIGRANT SHARE OF:

As Bay Staters age, we'll need more workers

As our population ages, new immigrants help keep our economy growing at a sustainable rate. Immigrants help meet growing needs for health care, home care, and supportive services that are key for older Bay Staters to have a dignified retirement.

Some people try to scapegoat immigrants to keep us divided. We don't have to fall for it.

After decades of stagnating wages, today wage growth is starting to move in the right direction. We know how to create a good economy for workers. It requires uniting around policy choices like investments in infrastructure, manufacturing, and our care economy with strong labor standards. Regardless of race or country of birth, we all do better when we unite for policies that grow jobs and wages.
